WMJR Jaguar Car Show At the Corner Restaurant in Midway UT

After years on Main Street in Park City with other car clubs this year the WMJR officers opted this year for a smaller, more laid-back Jaguar-only event in Midway UT.

The event took place

under good weather and pleasant surroundings despite smoky conditions in the Salt Lake City environs.

The Corner Restaurant

providing chairs and canopies for passing showers. Their brunch menu was tasty, too.

Attending were Kay, James, Susan and Jackson Jennings, Karl Hendrickson, Dil Strasser, Jim and Hermione Klekas, Ken and JoAnn Borg, Duane and LeAnn Allred, Bob Killian, Marvin and Connie May, Tim and Beth Furner, Rick and Julie Southwick.

Also Ginger Goyzueta, Henry and Chris Morrison, and Your Obedient Scribe Gary Lindstrom.

British Field Day In Salt Lake City's Liberty Park

What a treat it was to resume this long tradition after a year and a half or so Covid-19 hold up.

The turn out, both general and Jaguar, and weather were all great and lots of old friendships were renewed and cultivated.

The tight little autocross course was in full operation as were the food trucks.

Plus the British motorcycle owners had a good representation even though they were mourning the recent passing of their leader, Jeff Smith.

Attending were WMJR

folks Duane and LeAnn Allred, Arnold and Ann

Cady, Craig and Janine Call, Les Fuchs, Karl and Jean Hendrickson, Kay, James, Susan and Jackson Jennings, Robert Killian, Bud and Betty Merritt, Ginger Goyzue-ta, Jim and Hermione Klekas, Gary Lindstrom, Art Pasker, Jim Revel, Dil Strasser, and Lee and Judy Taylor.

Other Jaguar owners spotted in the crowd were Ryan Border, Robert Hors-ey and James Balluff.

A few photos follow but as always a complete gallery can be found on the club website wmjr.org

A Club Tradition Renewed: BBQ At The Borgs' Cabin 5PM Saturday September 18

Unlike 2020 the WMJR has managed to put together a reasonably full slate of driving and social events this year.

Now it's time to top off the summer with a club favorite, our yearly BBQ at the Borg family cabin in Midway UT.

In past years Chef Duane Allred has served up grilled burgers, brats and hot dogs. This year we plan to move a bit up the food chain and feature ribeye steaks and grilled chicken.

If I were a betting bloke I'd put money down on gorgeous fall colour and perhaps a beautiful sunset for those who linger long enough.

Rumor has it there may be a Jaguar trivia quiz in honor of J Jennings, who excelled at devising these challenges—and perhaps a prize as well.

Once again attendees are invited to bring a dish to share (appetizer, side, salad or dessert) and drinks if the club-provided soft drinks and water won't suffice (grilled items are on the house as usual).

We hope as many as possible will join a caravan to the venue as now detailed.

Rendezvous at the Parleys Way Walmart at 3:30pm for a 4:00pm departure.

Important!
Let Ken know the choice of steak or chicken for each member of your party by 5pm Wednesday September 15.

174 Dusty Classic Cars Revealed In Huge 'Barn Find'

Matt Robinson in CarThrottle.com

A massive private collection of cars in North London has been shown to the public for the first time, and they're all up for sale

There's a cluster of nondescript warehouses just off the North Circular road in Tottenham I've passed a bunch of times without once pondering what's in them. It turns out, however, that I was driving by a treasure trove of classics that have been hidden away for years. Now, the contents of that North London building have been shown to the public, and it's quite a sight.

There are 174 cars in total. There isn't anything super exotic in here, but these kinds of ordinary (ish) vehicles are nonetheless sought after due to their scarcity and the general ridiculousness of the classic car market. Oh, and they're all up for sale.

An Instagram account called London Barn Finds has been set up to show the cars off and detail the sale process. Despite only posting for the first time a few days ago, the profile is already at nearly 15,000 followers as we write. One of the posts includes the full car list (above).

London Barn Finds said that the list "is not 100 per cent accurate due to many of the cars being without number plates and some missing documents entirely". A couple we checked seem to be wearing the number plates of other vehicles. Most of the cars do include V5 registration documents, though, and a decent number of them have service history present.

In that warehouse are multiple R107 Mercedes SLs, various VW Type 2s and some classic Minis. Stand-out cars include a BMW 2002 tii, a 635 CSI, and a bizarre 1973 Porsche 911 made into a 964 replica. Amongst these are some very cheap bangers, too - we couldn't help but notice the Citroen Berlingo with a guide price of a mere £100.

The condition of the vehicles varies greatly, although most are wearing a thick layer of dust, and many have been liberally splatted with bird poo, which is very bad news for paintwork if left for a long time. All cars are said to run, at least, and a few can be seen idling away in the video at the top of the [web] page from TheTFJJ, which was shot during a public viewing session on Bank Holiday Monday.

It's not clear how long the cars have been there and the circumstances surrounding the sale (we've contacted London Barn Finds for more info and are awaiting a response). A quick search reveals some were taxed for road use as recently as 2016, while others have gone without a license for over 25 years.

Rather than task a physical auction house or one of the many new online bidding services to move the cars on, London Barn Finds says it's offering 'sealed bids' following the viewing day.

We'd love to hear from anyone who viewed the collection and/or put in a bid.
